Tip, android gameplay secrets: talk to the chef - he will teach you the more advanced aspects of cooking such as combining ingredients. The master chef gives you some flour and some water. This is the base for many meals. To make dough you must mix flour with water. To do so, tap on the flour in your inventory. then, with the flour highlighted, tap on the water to combine them into dough. As you gain experience in cooking, you will be able to make other things like peis and cakes. If you need a recap on anything, talk to the master chef.

Tutorial Old School RuneScape (wiki): when navigating the world, you can either run or walk. Running is faster but you can't run for long as you'll soon run out of energy. You can use the flashing orb next to the minimap to toggle running.

At the moment all of the quests are shown in red, which means you have not started them yet. When you start a quest it will change colour to yellow. Once you've finished it, it will change to green. This is so you can easily see what's complete. Tapping a quest in the journal will display some more information on it. If you haven't started the quest, it will tell you where to begin and what requirements you need. If the quest is in progress, it will remind you what to do next.
